

The Star

22 April 2011

All under one roof

Sleep easy: Bedroom design takes centre stage at Homedec 2011.

IF YOU need fresh ideas for your home then head to the latest edition of Homedec 2011 from April 29 to May 2 at the Kuala Lumpur Convention Centre.

Visitors can choose from plenty of home designs, trends, ideas, solutions tips and the best products in the market.

Home owners can look for tips for great interior design concepts and one-of-a-kind home decor items.

This four-day exhibition features more than 280 companies of all major exhibit categories for home renovation, redecoration and refurbishment industry.

Altogether there are over 810 exhibition booths in six halls of the convention centre.

Homedec, organised since

2003, offers fresh ideas and new concepts in home décor exhibitions.

And this time for Kuala Lumpur, bedroom designs take centre stage and it will guide home owners on the clever use of space, design elements and other essentials for the bedroom.

Great giveaways, cash reward and exciting events await lucky visitors too.

There is even a dream escape to Paris for a lucky couple.

The exhibition is from 10am to 8pm.

It is open to public and entrance is free.

For details, visit www.homedec.com.my or call 03-7982 4668.

Fresh concepts: Homedec 2011 offers visitors innovative ideas to spruce up their homes.