The much-awaited HOMEDEC 2011 is finally here and this year, it's all about translating great design into your home

Home renovation is a huge undertaking and with tons of tough decisions to be made during the process, it's easy to be overwhelmed. So, get smart and visit HOMEDEC this April and planning and materialising your dream home will be a smooth sailing affair.

To be held in PISA, Penang from 15 to 17 April, Kuala Lumpur Convention Centre from 29 April to 2 May and Persada Johor from 22 to 24 July, this annual exhibition is organised by C.I.S Network Sdn Bhd since 2003. As the leading exhibition for home projects and design, it has plenty to offer as it showcases the latest in home design, trends, ideas, solutions, tips and the hottest products.

It is taking on a 'Discover Design' theme which aims to guide homeowners on the right track to translating good design elements into the home. With a comprehensive overview of the must-knows such as decorating and designing, and how to convert interior ideas into reality, you will be equipped with the right knowledge and tools to undertake any home endeavor.

That's not all as HOMEDEC will be giving away attractive cash vouchers, cash and products during the exhibition! Simply spend RM500 and above in a single receipt and you might be one of the four lucky spenders to walk away with the total cash prize of RM80,000! With so much to look forward to in HOMEDEC 2011, head to the much-anticipated exhibition and get inspired!
